PERSONAL PROJECTS

Lizzie VSCode Theme (2019 – Present) ⧉
– Created a minimal dark theme for VSCode published to Visual Studio Marketplace. The main intention creating this theme is to have a comfortable and simple color scheme which could help us to concentrate making developers more productive avoiding distractions with cluttered themes.

Pause...Drink! (2019 – Present) ⧉
– Contributed to make a game, built and idealised by a partner called Phillip Sole, internationally known by translating the entire game challenges and interface to Portuguese, also reviewing the app features gathered with a team of contributors from all around the world with the intention to make the app even more fun to play.

TRINTA (2019 – Present)
– TRINTA is an app being created to help people to reach their goals by following the mindsef of consistency, inspired by the #100DaysOfCode movement. The app is being built with Node.js, Express.js, Sequelize ORM in the backend. For the frontend, I am using the React.js framework.

Devalizer (2020 – Present)
– Devalizer is a project management application still under development being created with Node.js, React.js and Postgresql. With Devalizer the developers can manage their entire project taking notes, adding tasks and keeping track of their remote repositories on Github.
